Many Believe Faubus, Ike Will Find Solution

Uneasy Calm as Nashville Mixes Classes

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — School officials, hoping for a permanent end to violence after a day of uneasy calm, kept doors open to racially mixed first grades today. They were backed up by tough police and prospects for a Clinton-type federal injunction.

Mayor Ben West and U. S. Dist. Atty. Fred Elledge Jr. prepared a petition for Federal Dist. Judge William E. Miller seeking the injunction to prevent interference with integration here.

It was under an injunction of this type that Northern segregationist John Kasper was twice convicted in U. S. District Court at Knoxville of stirring up racial strife at Clinton, Tenn.

Kasper, also accused of tomorrow's violence here, was sent yesterday to the segregated, Davidson County workhouse after his third arrest within a 12-hour span. The latest charge against him, based on speeches he made in a series of meetings here, is inciting to riot. He was sent to the workhouse after he failed to pay $200 fine for disorderly conduct, vagrancy and loitering. If he pays the fine, he will be returned to county jail for disposition of the state charge of inciting to riot.

First grades were integrated here Monday, under orders from Judge Miller, in six schools. A total of 15 Negroes showed up for first day classes, and racial flare-ups followed immediately.

Early the next morning an expertly set dynamite blast ripped open one of the integrated grammar schools. Six men have been picked up for questioning in the school dynamiting, and three of them were fined $50 each in City Court for possessing weapons. They were bound to grand jury on companion state charges and held in lieu of $5,000 bond. The other three were charged with vagrancy. All six have denied any part in the dynamiting.

Flash Floods Kill 300 in Turkey

ANKARA, Turkey (AP) — Flash floods roared down barren hillsides and smashed seven villages outside Ankara yesterday.

First reports reaching Parliament said at least 300 persons were killed. The government later announced that 14 bodies had been recovered and "earlier larger reports are without foundation."

The number of known dead was expected to rise.

Afternoon downpours hit an area extending from the suburbs of this Turkish capital to a village about 20 miles southeast. Unchecked by trees or moisture-absorbing vegetation, the muddy waters swept down from the hills and swirled between crooked rows of houses. About 1,000 houses were wrecked.

Dead animals were left mired in mud with debris and furniture. A U. S. Air Force major reported after flying over the area that a flood lake extended for four miles east of Ankara.

Low areas of Ankara were flooded. The main roads west to Istanbul and to other cities were blocked.

McCaskill Church Plans a Revival

Revival services at the McCaskill Assembly of God have been announced by the pastor, the Rev. Henry W. Culbreth. The revival will begin Sept. 16 and will close Sept. 22 with services each night at 7:30 p. m.

The revival is unique in that it will feature a different speaker for each night, with neighboring churches participating. The speakers for the week are as follows: W. W. Golden, Nashville, Monday night; Rev. J. S. Davis, Texarkana, Wednesday night; Rev. W. C. Long, Hope, Thursday night; Rev. R. E. Short, Glenwood, Friday night; Rev. H. W. Culbreth, Murretsboro, Saturday night and Rev. Arlie Francis, Berke, Sunday afternoon, 2:30.

The public is cordially invited to attend all these services.

Doris Duke Pays California Taxes

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UP) — Tobacco heiress Doris Duke has paid California $224,260 in back state income taxes for 1952 and 1953.

State Finance Director John M. Pierce, who described the settlement as a windfall for the state treasury, said Miss Duke will also pay interest of $50,000 on the sum.

The tax was based on an income of $3,735,000 received while Miss Duke was living in Los Angeles. Miss Duke claimed she was actually a resident of New Jersey.

Mediators to Try to Prevent Telephone Strike

NEW YORK (UP) — Federal mediators tried today to head off a threatened nationwide strike Monday of 35,000 telephone workers.

Two mediators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service formally entered the deadlocked negotiations between the Communication Workers of America and the Western Electric Co. Unit today, the mediators had been on a standby basis.

Both union and company spokesmen expressed hope a settlement could be reached before the Monday strike deadline, set Wednesday by the union. But highly informed sources in Washington said he doubted that the walkout could be averted.

CWA President Joseph A. Belina said a strike would affect long distance service in 45 states and the District of Columbia. Only Maine, Vermont and New Hampshire would not be affected if picket lines were set up. A strike would have little immediate effect on local calls since 25 per cent of such service is provided by automatic dial equipment.

U. S. Suffers Diplomatic Setback

By CHARLES M. MCCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

The United States appears to have suffered a diplomatic setback in the Syrian situation.

There was great excitement in Washington last week over the rise of pro-Communist Syrian elements to power.

Special envoy Loy M. Henderson, returning from an emergency visit to the Middle East, reported that Syria's neighbors were "deeply concerned" over the threat of Communist infiltration.

President Eisenhower interrupted his vacation to fly to Washington to confer with Henderson and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

The President, it was announced, had pledged to use whatever powers might be necessary to protect Continued on Page Two

Ike Defends Request for Conference

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UP White House Writer

NEWPORT, R. I. (UP) — The White House said emphatically today it did not consider Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus' request for a meeting with President Eisenhower an indication that the governor is ready to give up his fight against immediate school integration in Little Rock.

Eisenhower, in answer to a wire from Faubus Wednesday, suggested that the governor meet him here Friday afternoon or Saturday morning for a face-to-face discussion of the Arkansas school situation.

The President and his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, were outspokenly angry over what Hagerty described as "radio and television comments" in the governor's request.

"I have heard White House aides quoted on such things as 'throwing in the sponge' and other junk," Hagerty said.

"We have definitely refrained from such remarks and any such reports are completely untrue." As of this morning Hagerty had not received word from Little Rock when the governor would arrive.

The President went to his office at the Navy base early this morning, listened to broadsheets and then directed Hagerty to make a statement "expressing White House displeasure over reports that White House aides considered the Faubus request for a meeting as evidence of 'throwing in the sponge.'"

Hagerty met with reporters shortly before the President left for the golf course.

The National Security Council met this morning at the White House in Washington with Vice President, Richard M. Nixon presiding. Hagerty said the meeting was "routine" and not the result of any emergency, but he expected Robert Cutler, the President's special assistant for national security matters, would come to Newport in the next few days to report to Eisenhower on the session.

Ozark Negro Tells Attempts Made on Life

OZARK, Ark. (AP) — The father of two Negro high school students last night told a violence-filled story of the failure of attempted integration in this northwest Arkansas town. He said an attempt was made to kill the students.

Riley West of Ozark said a city marshal ordered his son and daughter and another girl not to return to school after they had attended classes with whites only two days.

He said a white automobile driver had tried to run over his children as they walked home from school. West said he had not reported the incident to police.

It was the first revocation of trouble at Ozark High School, which started a voluntary integration Continued on Page Two Donald R. Hamm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Hamm, R. I. Emmet, chose the Marine Corps aviation training program when he enlisted on Sept. 10. He followed recruit training he will be sent to Aviation Fundamental School at Jacksonville, Fla., for six weeks. From there he goes into one of 20 specialized aviation schools. He graduated last year from Hope High and attended Texarkana Junior College. He was recruited by MSGT. George H. Wood Jr., of the Texarkana station. Another Marine, Pvt. Raymond D. Harris, son of the Rev. and Mrs. William E. Harris of Hope, has completed four weeks combat training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Jaycees are urged to meet at Child's Store parking lot at 7 Friday night to form a motorcade that will journey to Hannam's Stadium and root for the Bobcats.

Meeting Called for Saturday at Newport, R. I.

By The Associated Press
President Eisenhower and Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus are ranged today to confer at Newport, R. I., Saturday in an effort to crack the federal-state deadlock over Little Rock school integration. James C. Hagerty, White House press secretary, announced at the President's vacation headquarters that word of Faubus' decision to come there Saturday had been received from Rep. Brooks Hays D-Ark.

By BELMAN MORIN

LITTLE ROCK, (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus is taking the aggravated federal state dispute over integration in Little Rock directly to President Eisenhower, and the general belief here today is that a solution will come out of their meeting.

Faubus, an aide said today, has not yet decided when to go to Newport, R. I. Eisenhower's vacation headquarters. He said the governor spent most of Wednesday in bed and that, while he is not actually ill, "he's not" too good.

He said Faubus was exhausted by the tension since he ordered the National Guard to surround Central High School last week — with instructions to keep Negro students from enrolling.

Faubus telegraphed the President asking to see him in Newport.

"His message," said in part: "Recognizing that we jointly share great responsibility under the federal Constitution, I feel that it is advisable for us to counsel together in determining my course of action, with reference to the responsibility placed upon me by the state and federal Constitution. "All good citizens must, of course, obey all proper orders of our courts, and it is certainly my desire to comply with the order that has been issued by the District Court in this case, consistent with my responsibilities under the Constitution of the United States and that of Arkansas."

The latter paragraph referred to a summons to the governor to appear in U. S. District Court Sept. 29 for a hearing on a federal petition for an injunction that would stop him from interfering with integration in Little Rock.

The President read the message on the golf course, just as he finished playing the first hole.

He dictated a reply saying: "I have your telegram, in which you request a meeting with me. Would it suit your convenience to come to my office in the naval base at Newport, Rhode Island, Friday afternoon, Sept. 13, at 3:00 p. m. Saturday morning, the 14th, at 9:00 a. m. If you would let my office know your method of transportation to the Newport area, my staff will arrange to have you met and brought to the base."

The atmosphere of optimism in Little Rock pivots on two main points:

1. It is generally assumed that U. S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies will issue the preliminary injunction against Faubus in the hearing next week. The governor then would be in the position of having to withdraw, under federal compulsion, the troops guarding Central High School.

If he refuses to comply, he might be liable to litigation for contempt. Continued on Page Two pro-Western Arab governments from overthrow by the Syrian leftists.

There was talk that it might be necessary to invoke the so-called Eisenhower Doctrine on the Middle East.

It was announced that weapons would be flown to Syria's pro-Western neighbor Jordan.

There was talk the United States Mediterranean fleet was moving into Middle Eastern waters.

From all appearances, the pro-Western Arab neighbors failed to get excited over the danger to them.

But the Syrian and Soviet Russian governments did get excited, if largely for propaganda purposes, and talked about the threat of American imperialist aggression.

Now Dulles has radically changed the official United States attitude toward the Syrian situation.

Dulles said at a press conference Tuesday that he thought the situation "probably will work out." He said the foresaw no threat of Communist aggression, which if it happened to occur, could not be dealt with by the "states involved."

It developed the Mediterranean fleet had not made any emergency move into Middle Eastern waters.

The airlift to Jordan, it was emphasized, was merely to speed up delivery of weapons previously promised.

As to talk about invocation of the Eisenhower Doctrine, Dulles pointed out the frequently forgotten fact that it has distinct limitations.

First, Eisenhower would have to commit an act of aggression against another country. Thirdly, the country attacked would have to ask the United States for aid.

is watching the Louisiana situation closely. He said it is "a little early to tell whether this is the beginning of the spread of Asian flu around the country."

Asian Flu Spreads in Louisiana

WASHINGTON (UP) — Public health officials kept an anxious eye today on an outbreak of Asian flu in Louisiana, fearing the start of an epidemic.

The state has an estimated 80,000 cases of Asian flu — half of them in New Orleans.

Assistant Surgeon General William H. Stewart told the United Press the Public Health Service at that time said three Negroes had enrolled.

School officials last night refused to comment on West's account of violence. No police official was available.

A white resident of Ozark, who asked not to be identified, told The Associated Press that the expulsion of the three Negroes Sept. 4 had been "hushed up" because of a desire to avoid unfavorable publicity. Ozark, a town of 1,800, is about 100 miles from Little Rock.

Willing Workers Auxiliary Meet

The Willing Workers Auxiliary of Unity Baptist Church met Monday at 7 p. m. with seven members present.

Rev. Moore opened with prayer and the devotional taken from Hebrews the 11th Chapter was brought by Mrs. Benney Orr. A poem entitled "Wonderful Story" was given by Mrs. Charles Ellis and the lesson taught by Rev. Moore from Philippians, Chapter 2.

The closing prayer was offered by Mrs. Esther Ward.

The next meeting will be Sept. 16 in the home of Mrs. Esther Ward and all members are urged to be present as officers will be elected for the coming year.

Spring Hill PTA Meets

Spring Hill PTA held its first meeting of the year Sept. 9 with 37 present.

The association was informed of the completion of sidewalks at the primary school. A lively panel discussion on the question, "How to Prepare a Child for this Changing World" provided much thought. Mr. Hubert Kidd, Mrs. Scott Key, Mrs. John Maxwell, Mrs. Garland Kidd and Mrs. Julius Adams were the participants with Mrs. Fred Fuller as moderator.

A social followed and the next meeting will be Oct. 7.

American Legion Auxiliary Meets with Mrs. Jimmy Cook

The American Legion Auxiliary met in the home of Mrs. Jimmy Cook on the evening of Sept. 10 with nine members and four officers present.

Reports were given to date and Mrs. Cecil Weaver, president of the Auxiliary, reported that the quota of 77 members for the year had been achieved.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. Cook served delicious punch and cookies to the group.

Mrs. Minor Polk Presides at Paisley PTA Meeting

Paisley PTA met Wednesday, Sept. 11 in the school auditorium with Mrs. Minor Polk welcoming the first grade mothers and other new members of Paisley PTA. Miss Mamie Belle Holt, principal introduced Mrs. Copeland, a new teacher at Paisley, and other teachers.

The group was reminded that insurance is available for children under the student accident protection plan. A joint PTA meeting was announced for Tuesday, Oct. 8, in the Junior High Auditorium.

The following are officers and committees for the year: president, Mrs. Minor Polk; vice president, Mrs. Jim LaGrossa; secretary, Mrs. Jim Martindale; treasurer, Mrs. Olin Lewis; historian, Mrs. W. Mrs. Jack Watkins served lead drinks to the group during a brief social period after the meeting adjourned.

First Meeting of Garland PTA

Garland grade school PTA met in the school auditorium Sept. 11, with Mrs. John Gardner, Jr., presiding.

Mrs. Gordon Bayless gave the devotional followed with group singing of "America."

Mrs. Gardner welcomed all the old and new PTA members and urged them to return for all of the PTA meetings. A recommendation was made and approved that the organization make a survey of the library and records and try to plan a project for the year, but she reminded the PTA is not a money making organization.

Mrs. C. L. Stuart, Jr., announced 152 paid members already this year.

Mrs. Harold Brents gave a short talk on the aims of our state president. Mrs. Hatch introduced the teachers and also said that they were trying to plan a community chest in the school so that the children would be asked to donate only once this year and that total would be divided among all the charity drives.

Mrs. Gardner announced a meeting of the joint PTA's in the Junior High School Auditorium to discuss Hempstead County Health Program on Oct. 8. Mrs. Davis' room won the room count.

A social followed the meeting so the parents and teachers could get acquainted.

Picture Data

The action picture of last week's practice game, on today's front page, is a test shot such as The Star makes in advance of every football season, using the newest techniques—in this case a new film developer, Ethol UFG, which was announced after last year's football season had closed. The picture was made on Tri-X 35mm. film, exposed at F4 at 1/500th second with a standard bayonet-base flashbulb, developed 12 minutes in Ethol UFG at 70 degrees, and enlarged on Kodabromide F5 paper.

Camera fans may obtain similar results by shooting Tri-X with an F4.5 lens at 1/250th second and enlarging on F4 paper—which is generally available at photographic stores. Importance of the new Ethol UFG developer is that it not only gives greater film density but also reduces "grain."

Lattner No Longer in Pro Football

LIGONIER, Pa. (UP) — Johnny Lattner, who made everyone's All-America four years ago while the celebrated halfback at Notre Dame, slipped unheralded from professional football today — the victim of a knee injury suffered in a service game.

Lattner ended a self-imposed probation period by asking his release from the Pittsburgh Steelers, the team he went to in 1934 while the toast of the nation and the winner of America's top sports awards.

A knee injury suffered in 1935 while playing football with Bowling Air Force Base proved his downfall, despite his persistent efforts to make good as a professional in the game he loved to play.

show following college games on a nationwide TV hookup Saturday afternoons.

He said even though he was in near-perfect physical shape he would not consider another professional football comeback.

Is a Miracle Approaching in National Loop?

By ED WILK3
Of The Associated Press

Is that a miracle or a miffage taking shape in the National League pennant race?

A miracle finish, such as the New York Giants staged in 1951, is like a tango. It takes two. Even a spirited spring down the stretch, such as the Giant's 37-7 drive six years ago, won't bring a payoff unless the leader collapses, as did the Brooklyn Dodgers when they lost 23 of their last 49, and then blew it all to the Giants in the three-game pennant playoff.

That's the situation in the NL race now. The second-place St. Louis Cardinals have won seven of their last eight while Milwaukee's first-place Braves, perhaps building pressure by insisting there isn't any, have lost five of their last eight.

The Cards stayed with it last night, battering Philadelphia 14-0 and climbing within 1/2 games of the Braves, who were dropped 2-1 by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The New York Yankees split a day-night double-header against Cleveland. Ol' Sal Maglie tossed a three-hitter that beat his former Tribe mates 5-0 in the opener, but Ray Narleski then set down the Yankees on four hits in Cleveland's 4-1 nightcap victory.

That left the camps with a 5 1/2 game lead over Chicago's second-place White Sox, who scored three in the 11th and beat Boston 4-1.

Third-place Brooklyn, seven games behind Milwaukee, defeated the Chicago Cubs 9-1 in the 12-2, and Baltimore split with Kansas City, winning 6-2 after a 7-3 defeat.

The Cardinals, hitting their one-game scoring high of the season, rapped 15 hits off ex-male Harvey Haddix and five relievers while collecting a pair of six-run innings. Del Giamie drove in three runs with his 22nd and 23rd home runs. Herm Wehmeier won his fourth in a row.

Warren Spahn, who had been Milwaukee's stopper, had the goods on the Pirates except for Frank Folles—No. 8 in the batting order. Folles had a perfect day with three of the Bucs' eight hits, swatting a home run that tied it 1-1 in the third and driving one the clincher with a two-out single in the ninth.

Right-hander Ron Kline won his sixth in a row with a six-hit, 1-0 victory. Andy Pafko, who homered in the second, and Del Rice had four of the Braves' hits.

Maglie, the 40-year-old right-hander Cleveland snubbed as "just another guy" after buying him from the Giants in 1955, gave up a single to Joe Caffie and Russ Nixon's ground rule double in the second, then no-hit the Tribe until Nixon singled with two out in the ninth. It was Sal's first American League victory.

Early Wyn lost his 7th. Narleski was touched for two hits by Hank Bauer, one an RBI triple in the fifth that cut the Indians' lead to 2-1. The Tribe rapped Bobby Shantz for eight hits in his seven frames.

Jim Rivera's third hit, a single, drove in the tie-breaking run for the White Sox. Fred Hatfield then added a two-run pinch single in the big frame that handed Willard Nixon an 11-1 record. Young Bill Fischer went all the way with a 10-hitter.

The Dodgers smacked 15 hits, 14 of them singles, and nailed it with six runs in the fourth that handed Bob Rush a 15th defeat. Jonny Podres hit his major league high with a 12th victory.

Jim Bunning hit his first major league home run and gained his first shutout along with his 18th

Stamps Here Friday for First Game of Season

The Hope High School Bobcats open their 1937 football season Friday night by entertaining the Stamps Yellow Jacks at Harmons Stadium. Game time is 8 p.m.

The Cats opened last year's season against the Yellow Jacks and came out on the long end of a 37 to 6 score. However, the score does not tell the entire story, as the Stamps eleven went down to a stubborn defeat after tying up the score 0-0 in the first few minutes of play.

Couch Leon Turpin told the press this morning that the team had been going thru a conditioning and sharpening up process for the past week and that all the Bobcats would be ready for action with the exception of Jack King who is still nursing an injured ankle.

While talking to Coach Turpin, he handed this reporter a placard that usually adorns the dressing room wall. This placard is issued by the Arkansas Athletic Association and is called "The Sportsman's Creed."

We thought it was good; see what you think:
The Player:
1. He lives clean and plays hard.
2. He plays for the love of the game.
3. He wins without boasting, he loses without excuses, and he never quits.
4. He respects officials and accepts their decisions without question.

The Coach:
1. He never forgets that he represents his school.
2. He inspires in his boys a love for the game and the desire to win.
3. He teaches them that it is better to lose fairly than to win unfairly.
4. He leads players and spectators to respect officials by setting them a good example.
5. He is the type of man he wants his boys to be.

The Official:
1. He knows the rules.
2. He is fair and firm in all decisions. He calls them as he sees them.
3. He treats players and coaches courteously and demands the same treatment for himself.
4. He knows the game is for the boys, and lets them have the spotlight.
The Spectator:
1. He never boos a player or official.
2. He appreciates a good play, no matter who makes it.
3. He knows the school gets the blame or the praise for his conduct.
4. He recognizes the need for more sportsmen and fewer "sports".
5. "Sportsmanship is that quality of honor that desires always to be courteous, fair and respectful, and is interpreted in the conduct of players, spectators, coaches and school authorities."

—Fielding H. Yost

Last season, the Bobcats finished in second place in the AAA Conference with a 4-1-1 record. In season play, the Cats won 9, lost 2 and tied 1. The Bobcats are scheduled to play six home games and six games away this season. This schedule is listed on pages 8 and 9 of today's paper.

Pioneers Have Special Program

The Pioneers of the First Presbyterian Church held a special program on Sunday at 3 p.m. at their regular weekly meeting at the church. The theme of the program was "Working with God" with major emphasis on the application of Christian principles in all occupations, professions and walks of life. A group of adults selected by the Pioneers were present and gave a brief discussion on their field of work and explained how they strive to work for God in their field and were C. H. Tompkins, Mrs. Robbie Wilson, Jim Morris, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Logan, Mrs. Floyd Hubbard, J. H. Nelson and J. R. Bemis. After their talks the speakers formed a panel and answered questions answered by the Pioneers.

Preceding the program a buffet supper was served to the 40 present.

Legal Notice

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that under and by virtue of a decretal order of the Hempstead County Chancery Court rendered on the 4th day of September, 1957, in a certain cause of action wherein Elita Phillips is plaintiff, and C. A. Phillips and others are defendants, being cause No. 8008, that the undersigned will on the 28th day of September, 1957, offer for sale at the east door of the courthouse in Hope, Hempstead County, Arkansas, at public outcry to the highest bidder on a credit of three months, the following lands in Hempstead County, Arkansas, to-wit:

All that part of the SW¼ of the SE¼ of Section 33, Township 9 South, Range 23 West lying West and Southwest of what is known as the Old Arkadelphia and Falcon Road and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the Southwest corner of said SW¼ of SE¼ and run thence East 20 chains and 5 links to the Southeast corner of said SW¼ of SE¼, from which point run thence North 1 chain and 28 links to the center of the Old Arkadelphia and Falcon Road, from which point run thence North 70 degrees West along the center of said road for a distance of 6 chains and 9 links, from which point run thence North 39 degrees West, continuing along the center of said road for a distance of 6 chains and 7 links, from which point run thence North 28 degrees West, continuing along the center line of said road for a distance of 4 chains and 28 links, from which point run thence North 39¼ degrees West, continuing along the center line of said road for a distance of 4 chains and 10 links to point of beginning, containing 10 acres, more or less; subject only to that certain royalty deed dated December 13, 1946, filed for record on January 6, 1947, and recorded in Book 198 at page 117 of the deed records of Hempstead County, Arkansas, same having been executed by J. O. Phillips in his lifetime, and his wife, in favor of H. C. Parker, conveying an undivided 100/1112ths interest in and to the minerals in, under and upon said above described lands, said royalty deed being a non-participating deed, not conveying any leasing rights, the grantee to receive thereunder only 100/139ths of the minerals run to the credit of the royalty interest reserved under any oil and gas lease, executed covering said lands or any part thereof, reference being given to the record wherein said royalty deed is recorded for the provisions thereof.

The purchaser will be required to give bond for the purchase money, with approved personal security, bearing 6% per annum interest from date, but the purchaser may pay cash and save the interest.

WITNESS my hand on this the 5th day of September, 1957.

THE CANVAS DAGGER

by HELEN REILLY

THE STORY: A scrap of fabric He had been wrapped in a blanket stolen from the cottage, which Sarah Casement is occupying temporarily. Officers find signs that his body was thrown in a pond. Later, after it was discovered the body was stolen from the undertaker and put in another cottage which was set afire.

CHAPTER XVI

When Sarah went in the Task house was a beehive. The news of where the dead man had been killed was already public property. A policeman had been in to talk to Carlotta. "You poor dear," she cried when Sarah went in. "Of course, you're going to stay here. You should have stayed here from the first. The stone house — and we walked into it last Saturday afternoon. . . . Isn't it frightful?"

The phone rang and half a dozen people sprang to answer it. The one or anything. A desperate man wouldn't have hesitated to take steps to silence them.

Diana Satterlee took him away. She looked at her watch and moaned dramatically. She exclaimed at the time. They were supposed to leave for the south in three days and there was so much to do and the packing had scarcely been touched. "Come, Felix," she was carelessly peremptory.

He went like a lamb. With no change of expression, he was on his feet. "Yes, Di, yes, you're right of course."

Amused glances followed their exit, and there were remarks. "Diana certainly leads poor Felix around by the nose, doesn't she?"

Tom came then. He gave Sarah a scrutinizing glance. "Put a coat on, we can't talk here." They drove over to the old Coast Guard station. He parked in the enclosure above the beach and drew Sarah into his arms. Sarah told him about the broom in the end chamber and the scrap of blanket and the blood under the eaves, sitting with her head against his shoulder. He was deeply disturbed. When she finished he was silent for a moment, then he said, "Love me, Sarah."

"You know the answer to that,"

Warns U. S. Livestock, Grain Men

By United Press

The Agriculture Department's crop report for September carries a warning to the nation's grain and livestock growers.

The report was issued in Washington yesterday afternoon. It forecasts a 1957 corn crop of nearly 2,200,000,000 bushels. Up four per cent from last month's estimate. The report predicts a record-breaking sorghum grain crop of more than 480,000 bushels, nearly double the previous record.

Estimates for all four major feed grains, for corn, oats, barley and sorghum grain, estimate for the crops total nearly 135,000,000 tons, about four per cent more than last year.

Assistant Agriculture Secretary Don Paulberg says the report means a tremendous supply of feed, and feed prices will be low. Paulberg says low feed prices will be an inducement to over-expand hog production next year. The size of the feed crop, as the assistant secretary sees it, adds to the risk that hog growers will produce a surplus of pork in 1958, enough to send hog prices down sharply.

The crop report, based on Sept. 1, conditions, says that overall crop prospects are up from last month. Total 1957 production is now the third largest on record.

This production record is being written in spite of some of the tightest federal production controls in history, and spite of a soil bank program which has taken 28,000,000 acres out of production.

Assistant Secretary Paulberg says the report is just another sign of the American farmer's tremendous ability to produce — a production machine so strong that even the efforts of a large scale soil bank program have been generally offset.

Suggests Clays as Rights Commissioner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.) suggested today that President Eisenhower appoint Gen. Lucius D. Clay to the new Civil Rights Commission to represent the Southern viewpoint.

Clay, a native Georgian, is chairman of the board of the Continental Can Co. and a close personal friend and adviser of Eisenhower. Clay served as commander in chief of U.S. forces in Europe and as military governor of the American zone in Germany in the postwar period.

Smathers, who heads the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, said in an interview he hopes the South will be represented of the six-man, bipartisan commission, to be named under the new civil rights law.

"I should think President Eisenhower would call on Gen. Clay, to whom he so often turns, to represent the Southern viewpoint on the commission," Smathers said. "I think the President will be fair in this matter and see to it that all sides are represented."

Tom.

"Then you're going to do what I say. You're going to get out of Cornwall. You've told the police all you know. If you tell them that you've got to get away but that you'll be available if they should want you, I don't think they'll try to keep you here. You were in the stone house Sunday morning when someone went up into that end chamber to clean up. I know you didn't see anyone, but whoever was there doesn't know it." He waited for Sarah to speak.

Sarah sat straight. She said in a troubled voice, "Two murders. . . . Do you think there's any connection between Grant Melville's death and the man who was killed in the stone house?"

Tom shrugged. "I don't know. There's no apparent link. . . ."

Tom started the engine and then drove into the hills and around by the bay. The road passed close to Grant Melville's. As they neared it Sarah put a hand on Tom's sleeve. "Look," she said, pointing. A thin figure was mounting the steep slope to the left in the direction of Melville's front door. It was Crystabel Dolvin. There was an air of purpose about her.

They beat Miss Dolvin into the house, and upstairs into the studio, where they retreated behind a model screen in a corner that commanded a view of the hall and the front door. You could see through the cracks.

Canvases were stacked around the walls of the big untidy room and overflowed out of a cupboard. Some of them were finished, some half done, some only started. Grant Melville had certainly painted long and hard. He had painted practically everyone in Cornwall. There was a head of Diana Satterlee and a full-length figure of Bob Brown at his handsomest and most arrogant, and Florio as there, dancing on a lawn, a hefty bachelorette with legs out of drawing.

It was the studio Miss Dolvin was bound for. She came humming up the path, knicked at the front door, waited half a minute and walked in. She paused in the studio doorway and looked around. She examined the portraits stacked in a row, paused before a mutilated canvas propped on an old bureau. Most of it had been ripped from the frame; there were just tags and tatters left. She picked it up. Tom stepped out from behind the screen, drawing Sarah with him, an arm around her. "Anything we can do for you, Miss Dolvin?"
